SCALPED THE REDMEN

Local Ball Team Defeats Indians In Spectacular Game

The Cherokee Indian ball team played the Stanford boys before a large crowd here Wednesday afternoon, and Stanford won in a sensational rally at the last of the game by a score of 6 to 3. The game was won by the home team after it appeared that the red men had it safely tucked away. As the Indians are considered a very hard team to beat, several Hustonville and Lancaster players came down to help. The local team out, but the box score shows that they figured very little in the run getting.

The star of the game was Harris Coleman, on second for Stanford. He hit safely three times out of four trips to the bat, scored two runs while his base running was spectacular in the extreme. The work of John M. Waters was also exceptionally fine, and Penny pitched a great game. He had to, however, for the twirler for the red men was very strong.

One of the Indians, Tobie, by name, had the index finger on his left hand split wide open by having it hit by one of Penny's fast in-shoots and mashed against the bat, early in the game. He had to quit the game and will return home to Oklahoma. The manager said that this Indian was playing ball in the summer to make enough money to take him through college. The score:

HARVEY HELM ANNOUNCES FOR RE-NOMINATION.

Formal announcement as a candidate for the Democratic nomination to succeed himself in the National House of Representatives, is made today by Congressman Harvey Helm, of Lincoln county.

Such an announcement at the proper time, of course was expected, for there is probably no voter in the Eighth district who has not known for a long time that those who endorse the great work Congressman Helm has done in the service of his people would insist that he stand for re-election, and that he would consent to go before the electorate again, giving a faithful account of his stewardship, and inviting a full and fair inspection of every detail of his record, content that the voters shall judge his worthiness of their approval by the part he has played in the legislation inaugurated and passed by the Democratic House in its battle for the plain people and their rights in compliance with the Denver platform.

Congressman Helm has served three terms, the first two as a member of the minority party. His last term, however, has been with a triumphant majority, which has made party history, and conspicuously has the name of the member from the old Eighth District appeared among those who are mainly responsible for the fact that the election of a republican president is today well nigh impossible.

In every way, Mr. Helm has completely demonstrated his fitness for the position he holds. His work speaks for itself. Washington correspondents of the daily newspapers during the present term have devoted more space to the results of his efforts than to any other one member of the Kentucky delegation. A congressman's best assets are his experience and service, and there are sections of the country which keep their representatives who have demonstrated their efficiency, in office a number of terms, and thereby secure far better results than those which are constantly seeking a change, and sending new and untried members to work with the seasoned veterans.

An instance of the value of experience and service is shown in the selection of Mr. Helm as chairman of the important Committee on Expenditures in the War Department, one of the two chairmanships awarded to the Kentucky delegation when the House was reorganized under Democratic control. Mr. Helm's work in that position in the way of economies and reforms has been of immense value to the country and is but an earnest of the further service which he will be to his constituents and country if continued in the field where he has already served so faithfully and well.

As a member of the Census Committee he has rendered the far-reaching great service in the preparation and passage of the Cautrell tobacco bill. As a member of the Committee on Insular Affairs he has labored to rid this government of the Philippine Islands that are a continuing menace to the peace of the nation, and a heavy expense to govern and control.

Mr. Helm's friends believe that the great mass of the voters of the nation this fall, irrespective of party differences, are going to demand an endorsement of the men who have worked singly and unselfishly for the common good during the epoch-making term of the 62nd Congress now drawing to a close. That he has stood in the forefront of the battle no one can truthfully deny. A sympathetic understanding of the needs and wishes of his constituents over his district has brought him very closely in touch with them, and the character of the fight made upon him has aroused his friends to increased vigor in his cause.

Mr. Helm has always made his political fights single handed in the open, on his merits and is identified with no faction or combination.

The result of the primary Aug. 3rd, 1912 will be a vote of confidence in him as a public servant.

MOUNT—WILSON

Brilliant Nuptials Solemnized In Lancaster Wednesday

Lancaster, June 6. One of the prettiest home weddings witnessed in Lancaster for quite awhile was that of Miss Margaret Vene Mount and Mr. Thomas Mosby Wilson, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. While Miss Helen Gail played the wedding march, the fair bride came in upon the arm of her father and was joined by the groom, when they stood in the bay window which had been artistically decorated with roses, ferns and palms.

Rev. F. N. Tinder then sealed the marriage vows in a very impressive manner. The bride was fair to look upon, in a becoming gown of champagne ivory satin, trimmed in chiffon roses, ribbon leaves, and duteless lace, the bridal veil attached by a wreath of orange blossoms and a shower of bride's roses and valley lilies.

Miss Joan Mount, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Miss Sarah Daniels of Paris and Hon. J. M. Farra of this city furnished a pleasing musical program. Miss Daniels rendering two beautiful solos, "I Can Not Help Loving Thee", and "Thou Art Mine All". Mr. Farra also pleased the assemblage with two solos "Thy Blue Eyes," and "Always."

The happy young couple left at once for a bridal trip east, extending their tour into Canada, and will be at home in Bowling Green in the early fall.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Wilson, Irvine and Allan Wilson, of Cave City, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duerson, Mrs. Frank Anderson and Miss Arabella Bogie, of Mt. Sterling, Mr. Douglas Riley, of Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Harbison, and Mat S. Cohen, of Lexington; Mrs. R. T. Lowndes, Miss Nan McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Logan Wood, and Miss Harvey Dunn, of Danville, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McRoberts, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shanks, Mrs. J. S. Baby Killed at Junction City

Junction City, June 6. While some children of Mr. and Mrs. George Benedict, better known as "Bud", were playing with a two-horse wagon Tuesday evening, the vehicle got away from them while going down a steep hill and little Nellie Malvina Benedict, aged 20 months, who was riding on same fell off, the wagon ran over her little body, crushing the life out of it. The child was the baby of the family and much sympathy is felt for its parents. Burial took place on Wednesday.

MRS. COLEMAN WINS $2,500 INSURANCE SUIT

Court of Appeals Says Company Must Pay on Policy Carried by Late Howard Coleman.

The Court of Appeals Thursday handed down a decision awarding Mrs. Emma Coleman, of this city, mother of the late Howard D. Coleman, $2,500 on an insurance policy which the young man had taken out in the Citizens Life Insurance Co., of Louisville, shortly before he was killed in an accident on the L. & N. Railroad. Young Coleman was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Coleman and was a very popular young man here and wherever he was known. The insurance company resisted payment on the policy and carried the case through the courts for over six years, but the highest court now says that it must be paid which the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman will be glad to know.

TWO MURDER CASES

Set For Trial In Circuit Court Here Next Week.

Civil business has occupied most of the attention of Circuit court this week, a number of minor civil cases having been tried while others have been stricken from the docket, from one cause or other. Judge Hardin is making good progress in getting the docket well cleaned up at this term.

Two murder cases are set for next week. John Henry, the negro, who is charged with having murdered the Cincinnati Southern Agent J. A. Engleman at King's Mountain several years ago, will be tried on Thursday. Jesse Brock, who killed James Brock in the Drifting Springs section, in a family fight some time ago, is also scheduled for trial this week.

Death of Good Woman

Mrs. Joe Smith, of near Brodhead, died at their home, late Thursday evening, aged 65 years. She had been in ill health for a long time. She is survived by her husband and six children, four sons and two daughters, the latter being Mrs. John Cress, of the Preachersville section, and Mrs. A. C. Hiatt, of Mt. Vernon. Mrs. Smith was a faithful member of the Baptist church, and a member of one of the most prominent families of that section of the state. She was laid to rest, Friday afternoon after services in the Oak Hill cemetery at two o'clock.

Victor Rosewater, a Taft man, was elected chairman of the republican national committee which is in session at Chicago hearing contests over presidential delegates. Judge A. R. Burnam, of Richmond, Kentucky member voted with the Roosevelt men.

Taft men worked the steam roller in the Ohio republican state convention and captured the eight delegates from the state at-large.
